

Education in Switzerland: benefits and prospects

To choose the education in Switzerland is possible at least because it is one of the richest and safest countries in the world. Swiss universities are known for high level of quality of education, and their diplomas are recognized everywhere. Local technicians valued by employers in many countries, but the most popular graduates of the faculties of hospitality and tourism management because Switzerland is a global leader in the hotel industry. To study here is prestigious; you have the prospect of a good job in any part of the world.

Employees of the hotel business is always needed, and this means that when searching for a job will choose you, not you. In addition, your duties will include numerous visits and meeting with influential people.

Almost all universities offer a high level of education at the faculty of hotel management. One of them is IMI University Centre . For example, consider, what are the benefits from studying in Switzerland may be granted to students.

Paid internships. Each course begins with a semester of study and ends with a semester of paid work experience. 1 month internship the students get a decent fee; about 2200 Swiss francs. This salary covers the full cost of housing, food, personal needs and even more.

For comparison, our student with a minimum scholarship of 720 UAH. per month on a daily basis can afford except that the sausage sandwich and yogurt, if parents do not support him financially. And if he has a paid internship depends on karma and the circle of influential acquaintances.

Swiss diploma is a prestigious. Degree in the universities of this country, foreign companies are valued much more than the Ukrainian diploma, sadly to admit it. So if you dream of a bright future and successful career, education abroad is not a whim but a necessity of today's realities.

Summary reviews of employers. Upon completion of training, in addition to the diploma, graduates receive evaluations from those companies where I trained. Therefore, neither the employer at the interview will not have the right to disparage my leg on the table and send the applicant away for lack of experience.

Position at well-known corporations. Among the hotel complexes that take in students of IMI to work is Hilton Hotels & Resorts, InterContinental Group, Hyatt Hotels, Radisson Hotels etc. Clients of these companies are famous people around the world from political leaders to the stars of show business.

Training requirements

A specialty offered by IMI University Centre, atypical. Except for international hospitality and tourism management, students can choose a hotel business, click site event management or culinary excellence. Join IMI at any time, not just immediately after graduation.

Those who have already received any other higher education, for admission to bachelor's degree can enroll directly to the 3 course. If you decide to change specializations in favor of the hotel and restaurant business, for whatever reason, difficult, you can always choose one of the postgraduate programmes. They continue for only a year; 1 semester, 1 semester; paid internships.

Requirements: IELTS certificate with score 5.0 points and a high level of proficiency in spoken English. If the applicant participated in the international program Work & Travel USA, this will be his significant advantage among other applicants.